

Media Release

June 13, 2006

for Immediate Release

Annual General Meeting FNCPA Executive Nominations

Halifax, Nova Scotia, June 7-12, 2006 - Delta Halifax

On June 10, 2006 the First Nations Chiefs of Police Association (FNCPA) held Executive Elections during the Annual General Meeting in Halifax, Nova Scotia. Chief electoral officer for the AGM 2006, Robert Johnson with the assistance of Ava Hill announced the results for the Executive elections nomination process for Officer positions ensuing two years of the First Nations Chiefs of Police Association.

Chief of Police for the Tsuu T'ina Nation Police Service, Stan Grier was elected as the Treasurer. Larry Hay, the Chief of Police for the Tyendinaga Police Service was elected Secretary. The Chief of Police for Wikwemikong Tribal Police, Gary Reid was elected Vice President and Brian Rupert, Chief of Police for the Treaty Three Police Service was elected as the President for the First Nations Chiefs of Police Association (FNCPA) for 2006 – 2008.

The First Nations Chiefs of Police Association (FNCPA) is an Association with objectives to advance First Nations Police Services on First Nations Territories and provides effective and efficient police services to First Nations communities and territories throughout Canada. The FNCPA provides encouragement to foster adequate and meaningful training programs to meet the needs of First Nations Police Services and acts as a liaison among all Canadian First Nations Police Services and other First Nation Government and organizations while utilizing the values of First Nations Traditional Law.

For further information, contact Communications Officer Jody Martin Mathew Hill at (519) 445 4191 or email: jhill@snpolice.ca